STUDENT LIFE

Splendor of Far East Remains a Memory

of the '72 Prom

Prom activities took an oriental slant last year at "Evening in the Orient." Ming trees, dragons, and lotus flowers dotted the scene.

Buddah smiled as approximately 175 couples danced to the music of "Jack Midas and the Touch of Gold."

This was the first year dress was relaxed, which may have contributed to the increased attendance.

Far left: Laurie Leed and her escort John Ulmschneider will remember their dances in the mystical "oriental garden" to such tunes as "Close To You." Center: The efforts of the junior class and sophomore art students gradually molded the gymnasium into a far eastern setting with decorations the emperor of China would envy. Top: Honorable Geisha

In the spring of '72, thirteen Hoover lovelies were selected to be "royally honored" by the choirs, the track team, and the band. The beauty of these queens graced the festivities over which they presided.

U.S. Proves Interesting to All

One Senator, one State Representative, a County Commissioner, and three city officials walk the halls of Hoover High! Six students were delegates to Girls and Boys State last summer. Participants learned the mechanics of self-government.

"I came here to discover not just Americans but people from other countries in the exchange program," said Maria Bussolotti Brazilian exchange student. New faces, friends, and experiences await each student in their home away from home.

Scholars Score Well on Tests

Hoover was represented by 36 "brainy" students in the 1972 Scholastic Achievement Tests given at Malone College. Among the many fine scores, Ron Smith proved his knowledge of Biology by placing 7th in state-wide competition. Will Joliat held 16th place in Chemistry. State Honorable Mentions were earned by Chris Cox, Bob Draper, John Mallard, and Ann Painter.

Top left: Bilingual students were D. Self, N. Norman, K. Gilkison, D. Burgess, P. Smith, B. Sluss, A. Painter, and S. Williaman. Absent: L. Rider and M. Marapao. Lower left: History buffs were J. Mallard, M. Forster, J. Young, and M. Oby. Center: "Skilled" mathematicians included M. Schoot, F. Clarke, C. Cox, and D. Preston. Absent: R. Draper. Below: On the English team were S. Waltenbaugh, L. Groshan, D. Hohler, and S. Hosmer. Bottom: Scientists were A. Mohler, R. Smith, J. Mathie, R. Draper, K. Hawkins, L. Mylett, J. Vestal, W. Joliat.

Awards Given

Literary honors were bestowed upon the hard working newspaper and yearbook staff journalists. Those inducted or given honor keys for their work on the Viking Views, showed their ability to be alert to newsworthy school activities. Twelve annual staff members were recognized for their job of collecting and compiling memories of the school year. Special awards were also given to those previously honored by Quill and Scroll.

This year National Honor Society did not induct sophomores because all inductees must attend Hoover at least one year before being chosen. Ten per cent of the junior class and 15 percent of the senior class were selected for their sense of responsibility and leadership in school and community activities.

Hoover sent 3 scholars to the national PSAT/NMSQT test finals. The semifinalists were among the top 1% all the students that took the test. The students who scored in the low 2% were awarded letters of commendation.

Aides Aim to Improve HHS

"Service to thy school" was the motto of approximately seventy Hoover students who worked as office aides, chemistry and biology lab assistants, and library aides.

Girls who volunteered their time in the Attendance office were introduced to the responsibilities of a secretary. They learned how to take accurate messages, file, and use the adding machine.

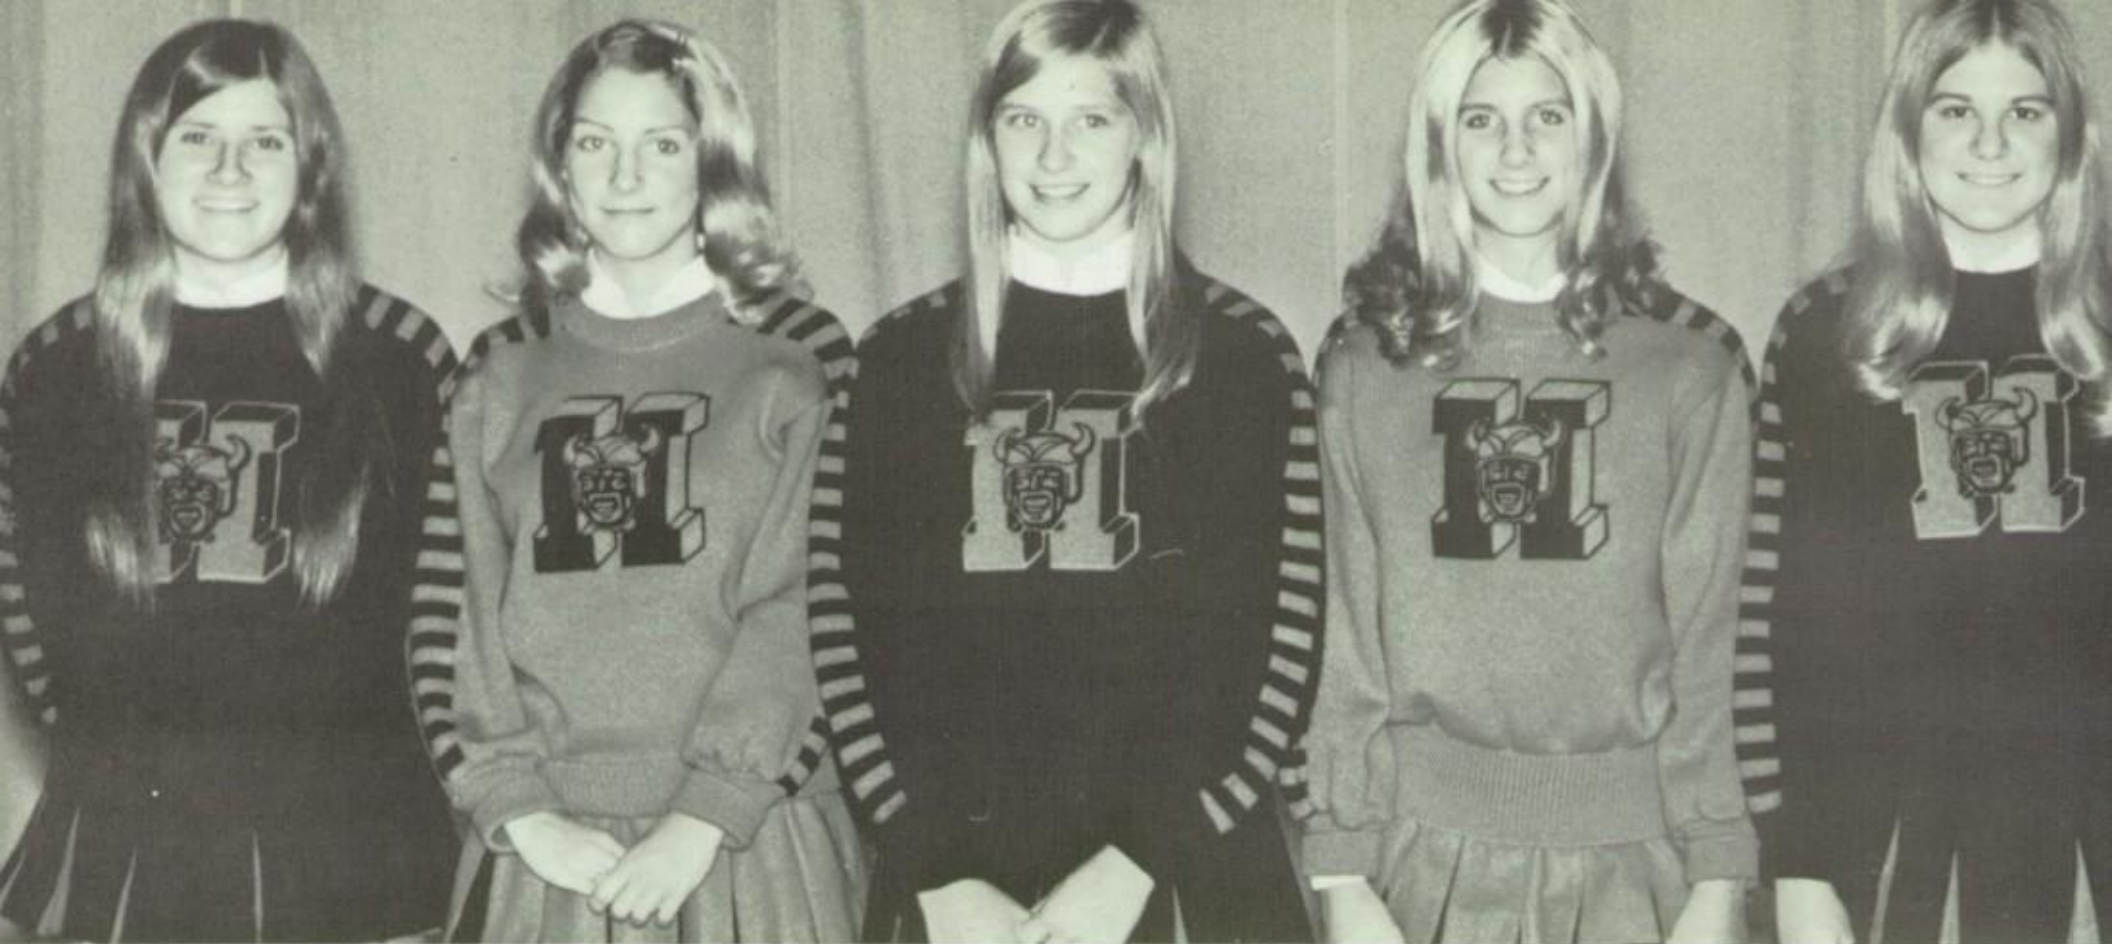

Grading test papers and cleaning work tables and equipment were among the tasks of the science lab assistants.

Both girls and boys gave up a period a day to assist the regular librarians. Checking books at the circulation desk and processing new ones kept the girls busy. The boys had the job of monitoring the halls.

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y!

Hoover cheerleaders rated fourth in the nation at Grand National Competition.

At Camps All American cheerleading clinic last summer, both reserves and varsity won first place in competition against girls from all over the country. Dena Barry and Fran Piatt placed first in their separate sections in individual contests. Julie Taylor won fourth place.

The Cheerleaders practiced two or three times during the week. They matched original movements with chants that they learned at camp, drilled older cheers and worked out skits and routines for football and basketball pep-rallies.

Harvey Appears

Harvey, and invisible six foot white rabbit, made a guest appearance at this year's all-class play named in his honor.

After seven weeks of enthusiastic practice, the Hoover Thespians presented Harvey to an audience of three hundred people.

As the curtain rose on November 11, the amusing predicaments of Elwood P. Dowd, (Harvey's best human friend), and his fellow characters were enacted. The stage was set both as the front office of Chumley's Rest Home and Elwood's living room.

Mrs. Marquardt, dramatic director, was in charge of the production.

Lucky Students Travel Abroad

Several Hoover students got a taste of foreign lifestyles during their visits to various countries last summer.

Chris Anderson and her family ate nothing but ham while in Paris because it was the only French word they knew on the menu!

"Crazy" driving was noted in both French and Mexican cities. People drove in all directions. "We almost got killed a million times," said Sue Schmidt, who spent three weeks south of the border.

Jim Wilkins started his European tour in Paris, visiting cousins who live a block away from the Eiffel Tower. Lee Russel also visited her relatives. She was born in London, England. This was the Russel's second trip back to the British Isles since they moved here 14 years ago.

ATHLETICS

'20's Hit in '72

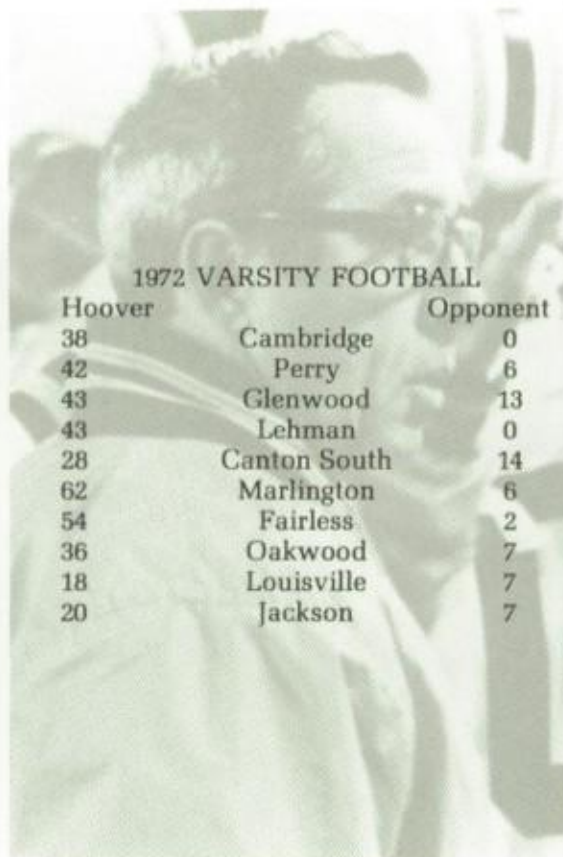

Hoover Vikings marched to Homecoming victory as their queen looked on. Fran Piatt was crowned by last year's Homecoming Queen Kathie Smiley at pre-game ceremonies.

The "Football from the Oldies" theme brought back the '20's and '40's. Antique cars escorted the queen and her court. The theme came alive at the dance with old-fashioned decorations and entertainment. Hoover's flapper Lisa Austin performed the Charleston.

Far left: 1972 Homecoming queen was Fran Piatt, Senior varsity cheerleader. Vikings Hit Perfect 10-0 Season

A 10-0 record and an undisputed Federal League title, both firsts for the Vikings and Coach Don Hertler, climaxed a brilliant season on the gridiron.

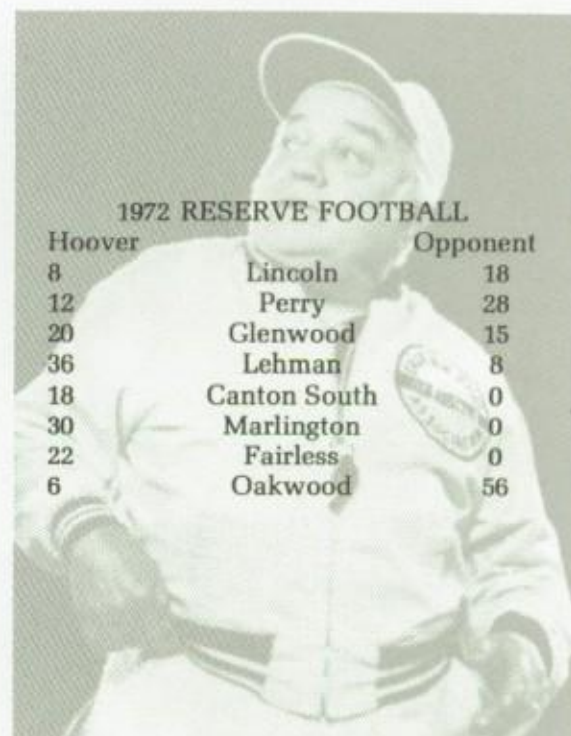

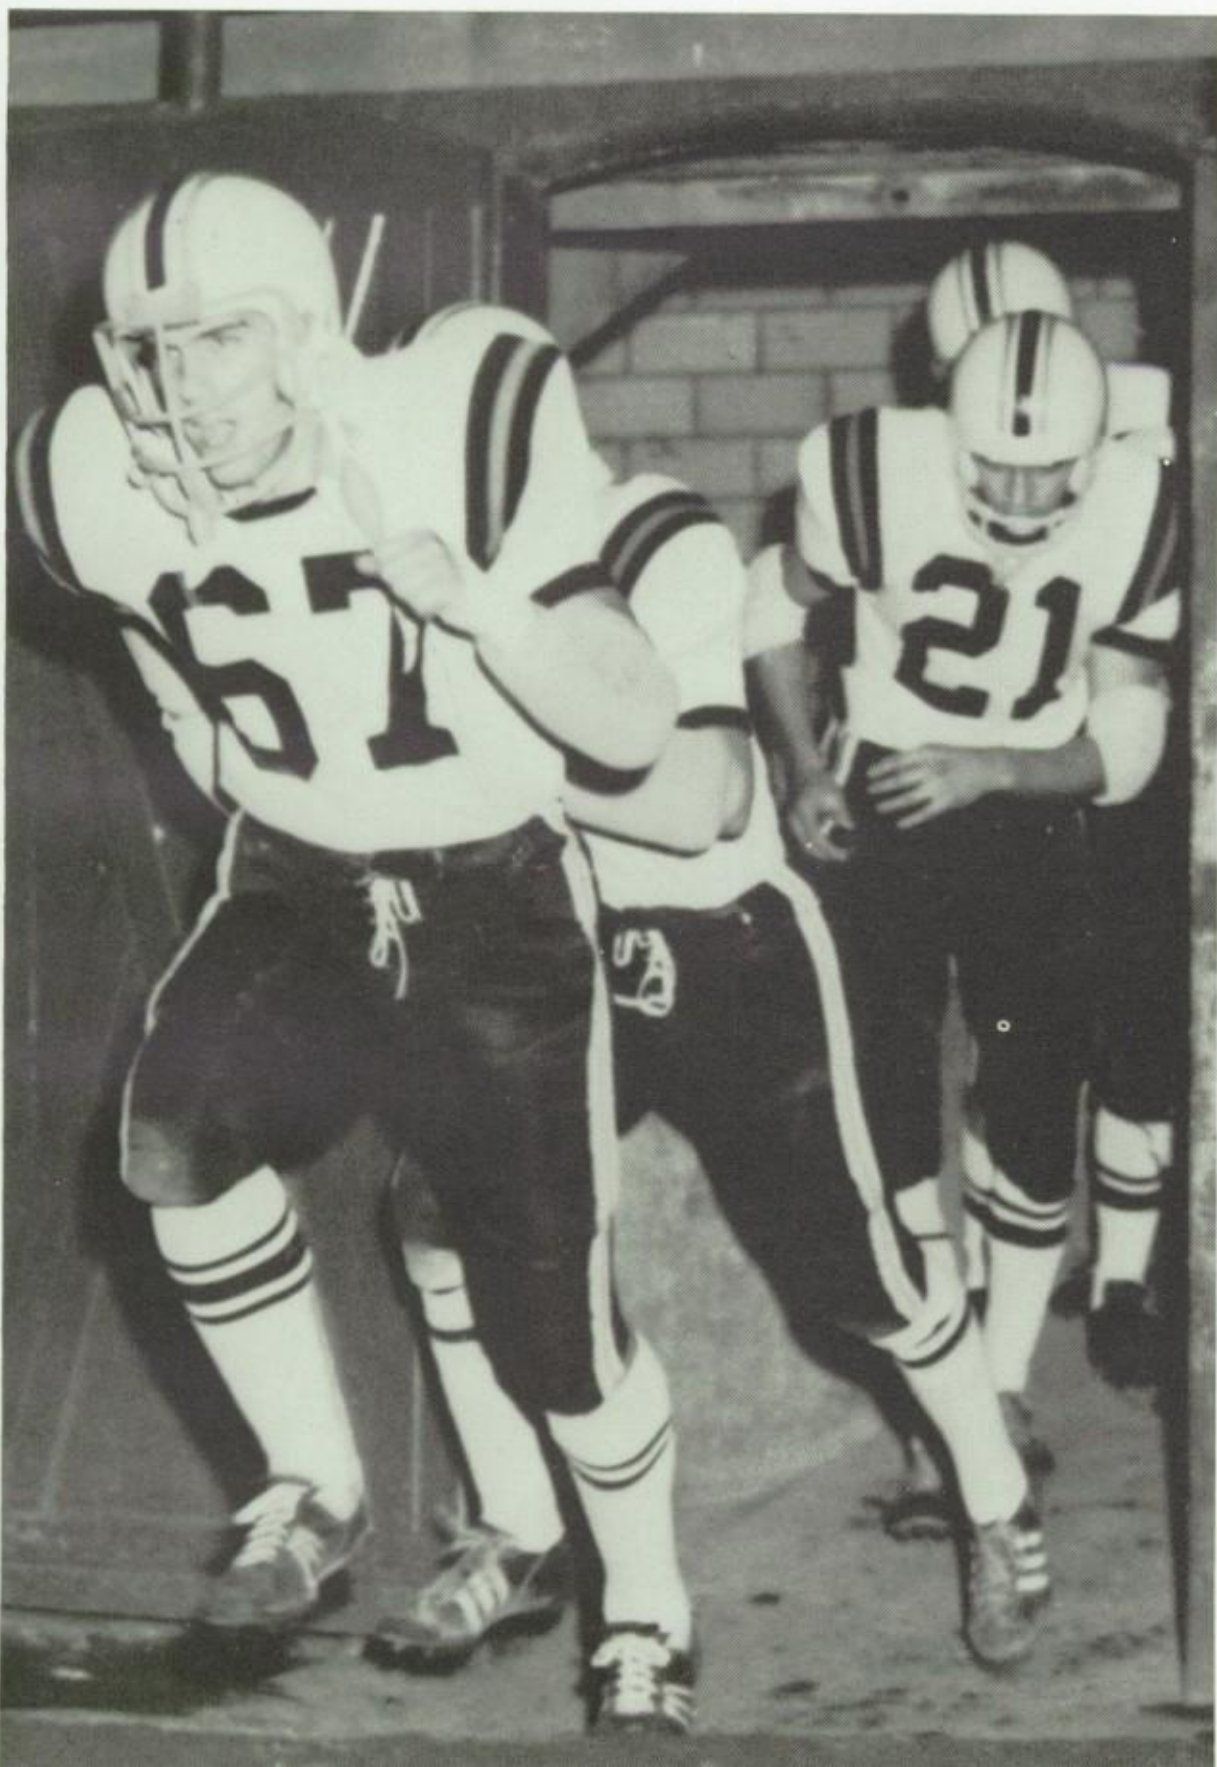

Running back Jeff Logan set county records for most points scored and most touchdowns made. Coach Hertler feels that Logan and quarterback Tim Starrett were outstanding, but he said the team as a whole deserves equal credit. He noted that they exhibited an unusual amount of desire and determination.

Jeff Logan, Mark Lukens, Bob Michel, and Tim Starrett were selected by WHBC to be on the All-County team. Also honored were John Mallard, who received the Jim Muzzie Scholastic Achievement Award, and Mr. Hertler who was chosen to be the Stark County "Coach of the Year."

Mr. Hertler commented, "It is one of the high points of my life." Seven Hoover players were also named to the All-Federal League team.

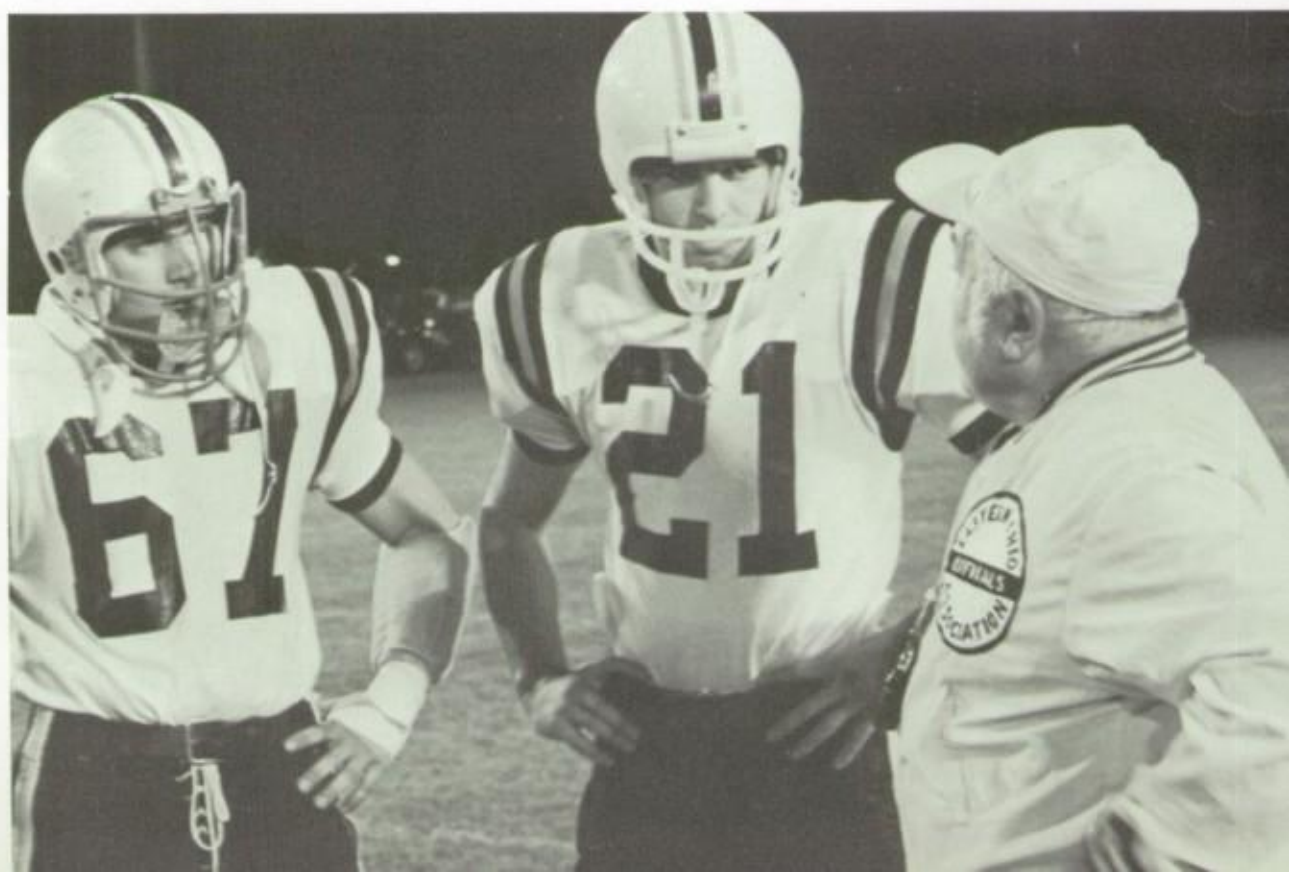

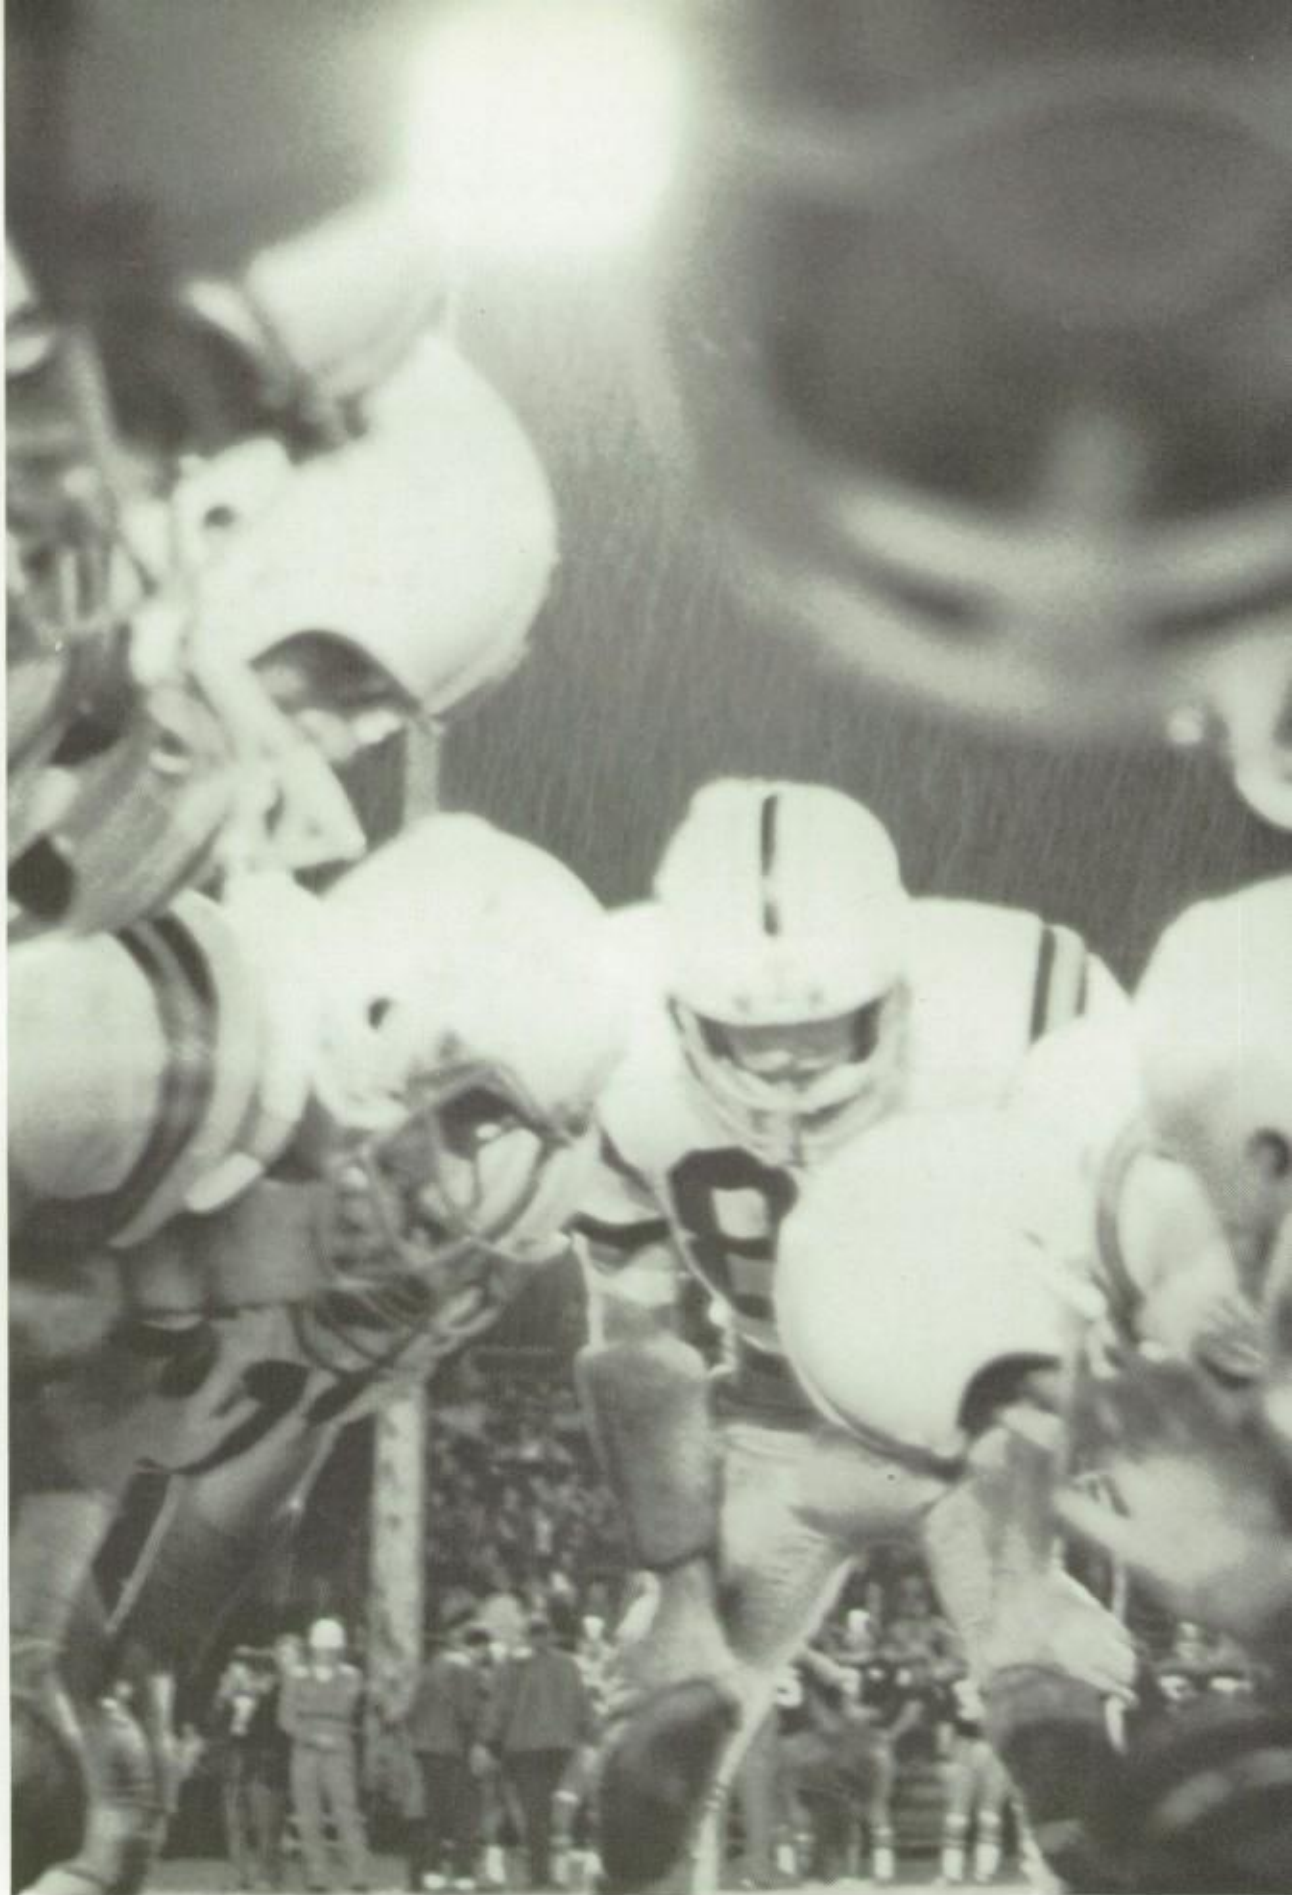

The Viking Reserves attained a 5-3 season this year. "The players have the potential to give Hoover another winning varsity team," commented Coach Gross. Halfback Kim Cooksey was one of the most exceptional players this year, scoring 50 of the final points for the Reserve team.

Dedication and Courage Pays Off for Gridders

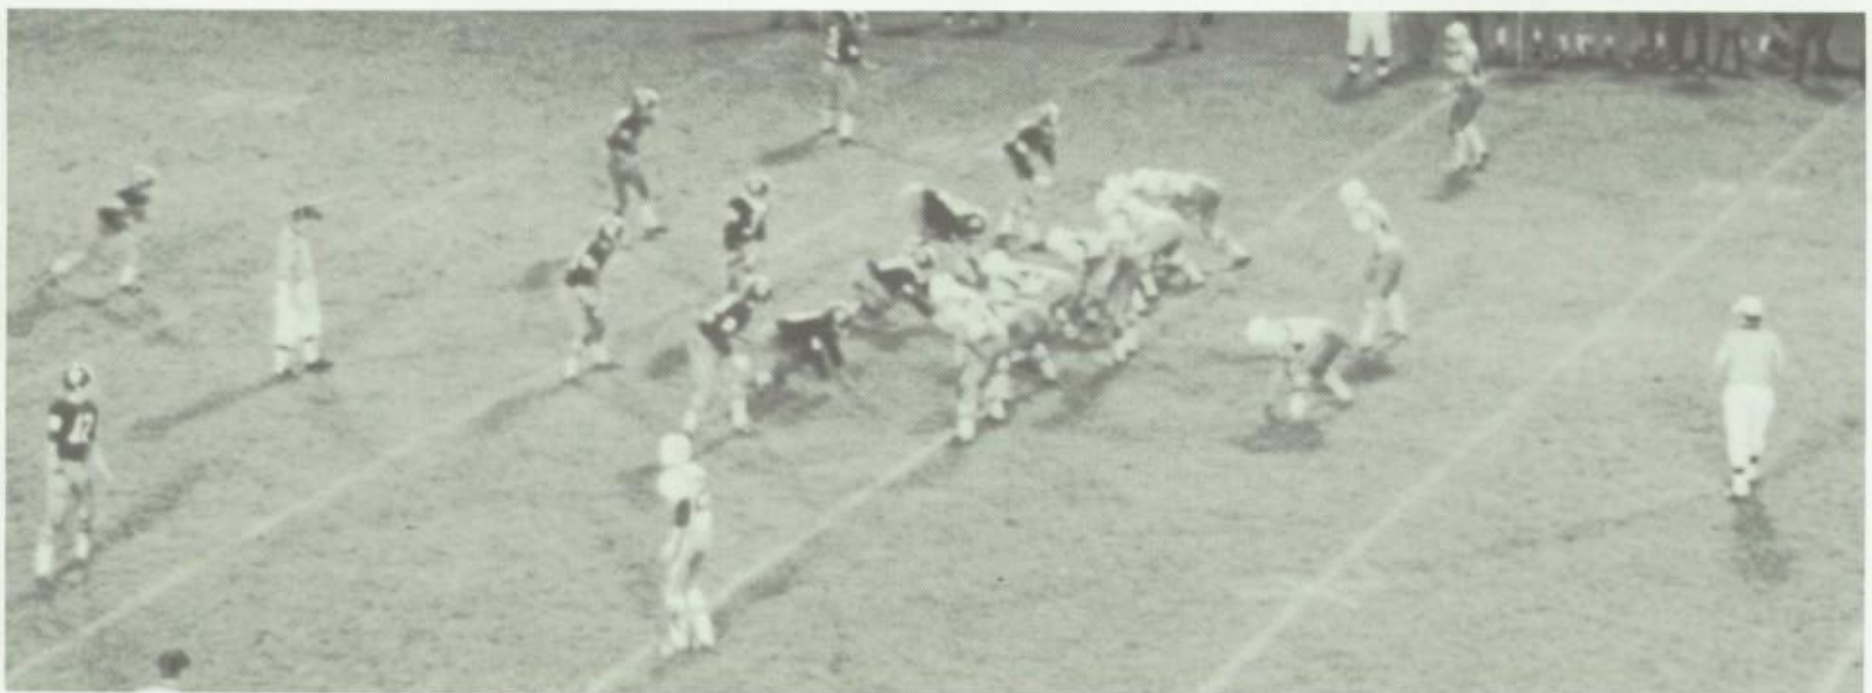

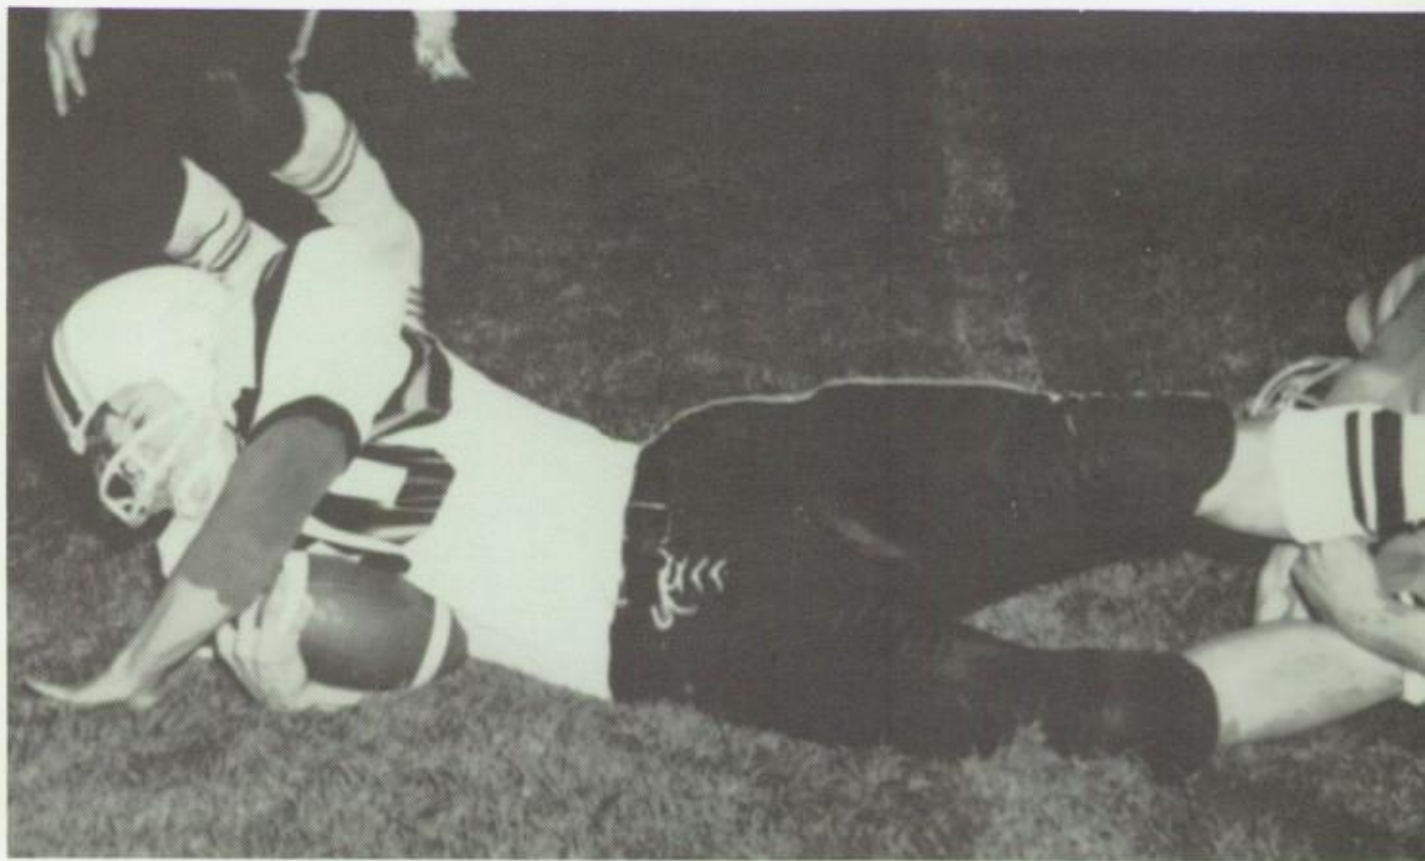

The Vikings defeated perennial rival Louisville 18-7 in front of a record crowd of 9,000 fans. They were backed by the whole city, which had participated the day before in a city-wide pep rally and bonfire. In addition, Mayor Johnson declared November 3rd, the day of the Louisville game, as "Beat Louisville Day." The Vikings were captured by a spirit of revenge, having lost badly to Louisville the last two years, and they needed this game to capture at least a share of the Federal League title.

The game was hard-fought and the Viking defense displayed their best showing of the season by preventing the Louisville offense from scoring. During the second half the Viking offense "played it safe" by keeping the ball on the ground, after making two excellent first-half drives. Except for a short period in the second quarter, the Vikings were in command throughout the game.

Exuberant Runners Keep Going for Team Points

In his first year as Hoover's cross country coach, Mr. Sollie guided the team to a 6-6 season. The top runners were Ron Savage and Jeff Sweitzer who broke the existing school record with marks of 10:16 and 10:18. Ron Savage was also chosen as by the Federal League coaches as one of four runners in the 1972 Federal All-Star Cross Country squad.

Coach Sollie feels that the six returning lettermen and the overall attitude were the team's major assets. Mr. Sollie commented, "The team was still improving when the season ended."

And Hope for a New Record

The 1972-73 swim team concluded their season with a 6-4 record. Coached by Mr. Morrison and led by Co-captains John Guiher and Mark Staib, This team worked almost constantly, practicing three hours daily. Mr. Morrison added, "They were the best overall team we have ever had. Everyone worked very hard and their times proved it."

Three new records were set by underclassmen this year. Junior, Ralph Hopple, Set a new record of 4:15.4 in the 400-yd freestyle event which is 16 laps of the pool. Sophomore Jeff White accumulated 201.25 points in diving during the meet against Masillon. The free style relay team of Ralph Hopple, Rick Chambers, Gregg McCreery, and John Skirtech set a new time of 3:38.7.

At the districts, the team scored 58.5 points to take 9th out of 29 teams, although no one qualified for the state meet.

Grapplers Pin For a Win And a Chance to Go to State

An 8-1-1 dual meet record and a tournament championship highlighted the 1972-73 varsity wrestling season. Starting the season with 8 lettermen, the team was led by outstanding seniors, Don Burgoon, Jeff Sweitzer, Dan Stipe, Bill Rebellino, Jack Foughty, and Bob Michel.

Mr. Tolarchy commented, "This is the most improved team from the beginning of the season to the end that I have coached."

The reserve wrestlers ended their season with a 10-0 record. They were paced by Junior Jim Dickerson and John Walsh. Coach Wise added, "They were a hardworking group with outstanding potential."

'72 Vikings Hit Grand slam Year

"The team played some good baseball", was Coach Knisely's comment on the 1972 baseball team. Their record was 11-13 and Chuck Little was named the most valuable player.

Although there were only 5 lettermen, the team was greatly aided by underclassmen who filled in the squad's weak spots. Jeff Winegard had the best batting average and the top pitchers were Joel Jagger and Tom Stock with E.R.A.'s of 2.69 and 3.75.

The highest-scoring game of the season was 24-2 against Marlinton.

Determination and Skill Pay Off As Tennis Team Bounces to Win

Another winning season of 8 wins, 7 losses, and 1 tie was tallied by the 1972 tennis team under Coach Don Miller's guidance.

Tom Powell achieved honors of being both top singles player and the most valuable player for the second consecutive year by posting a record of 11 wins and 3 losses. Other outstanding singles players were Jeff Kratz, Steve Glass, and Jim Skibbens.

The doubles team of Dave Faller and Jim Chievitz represented Hoover's best showing at the Sectional Tournament, although being eventually eliminated.

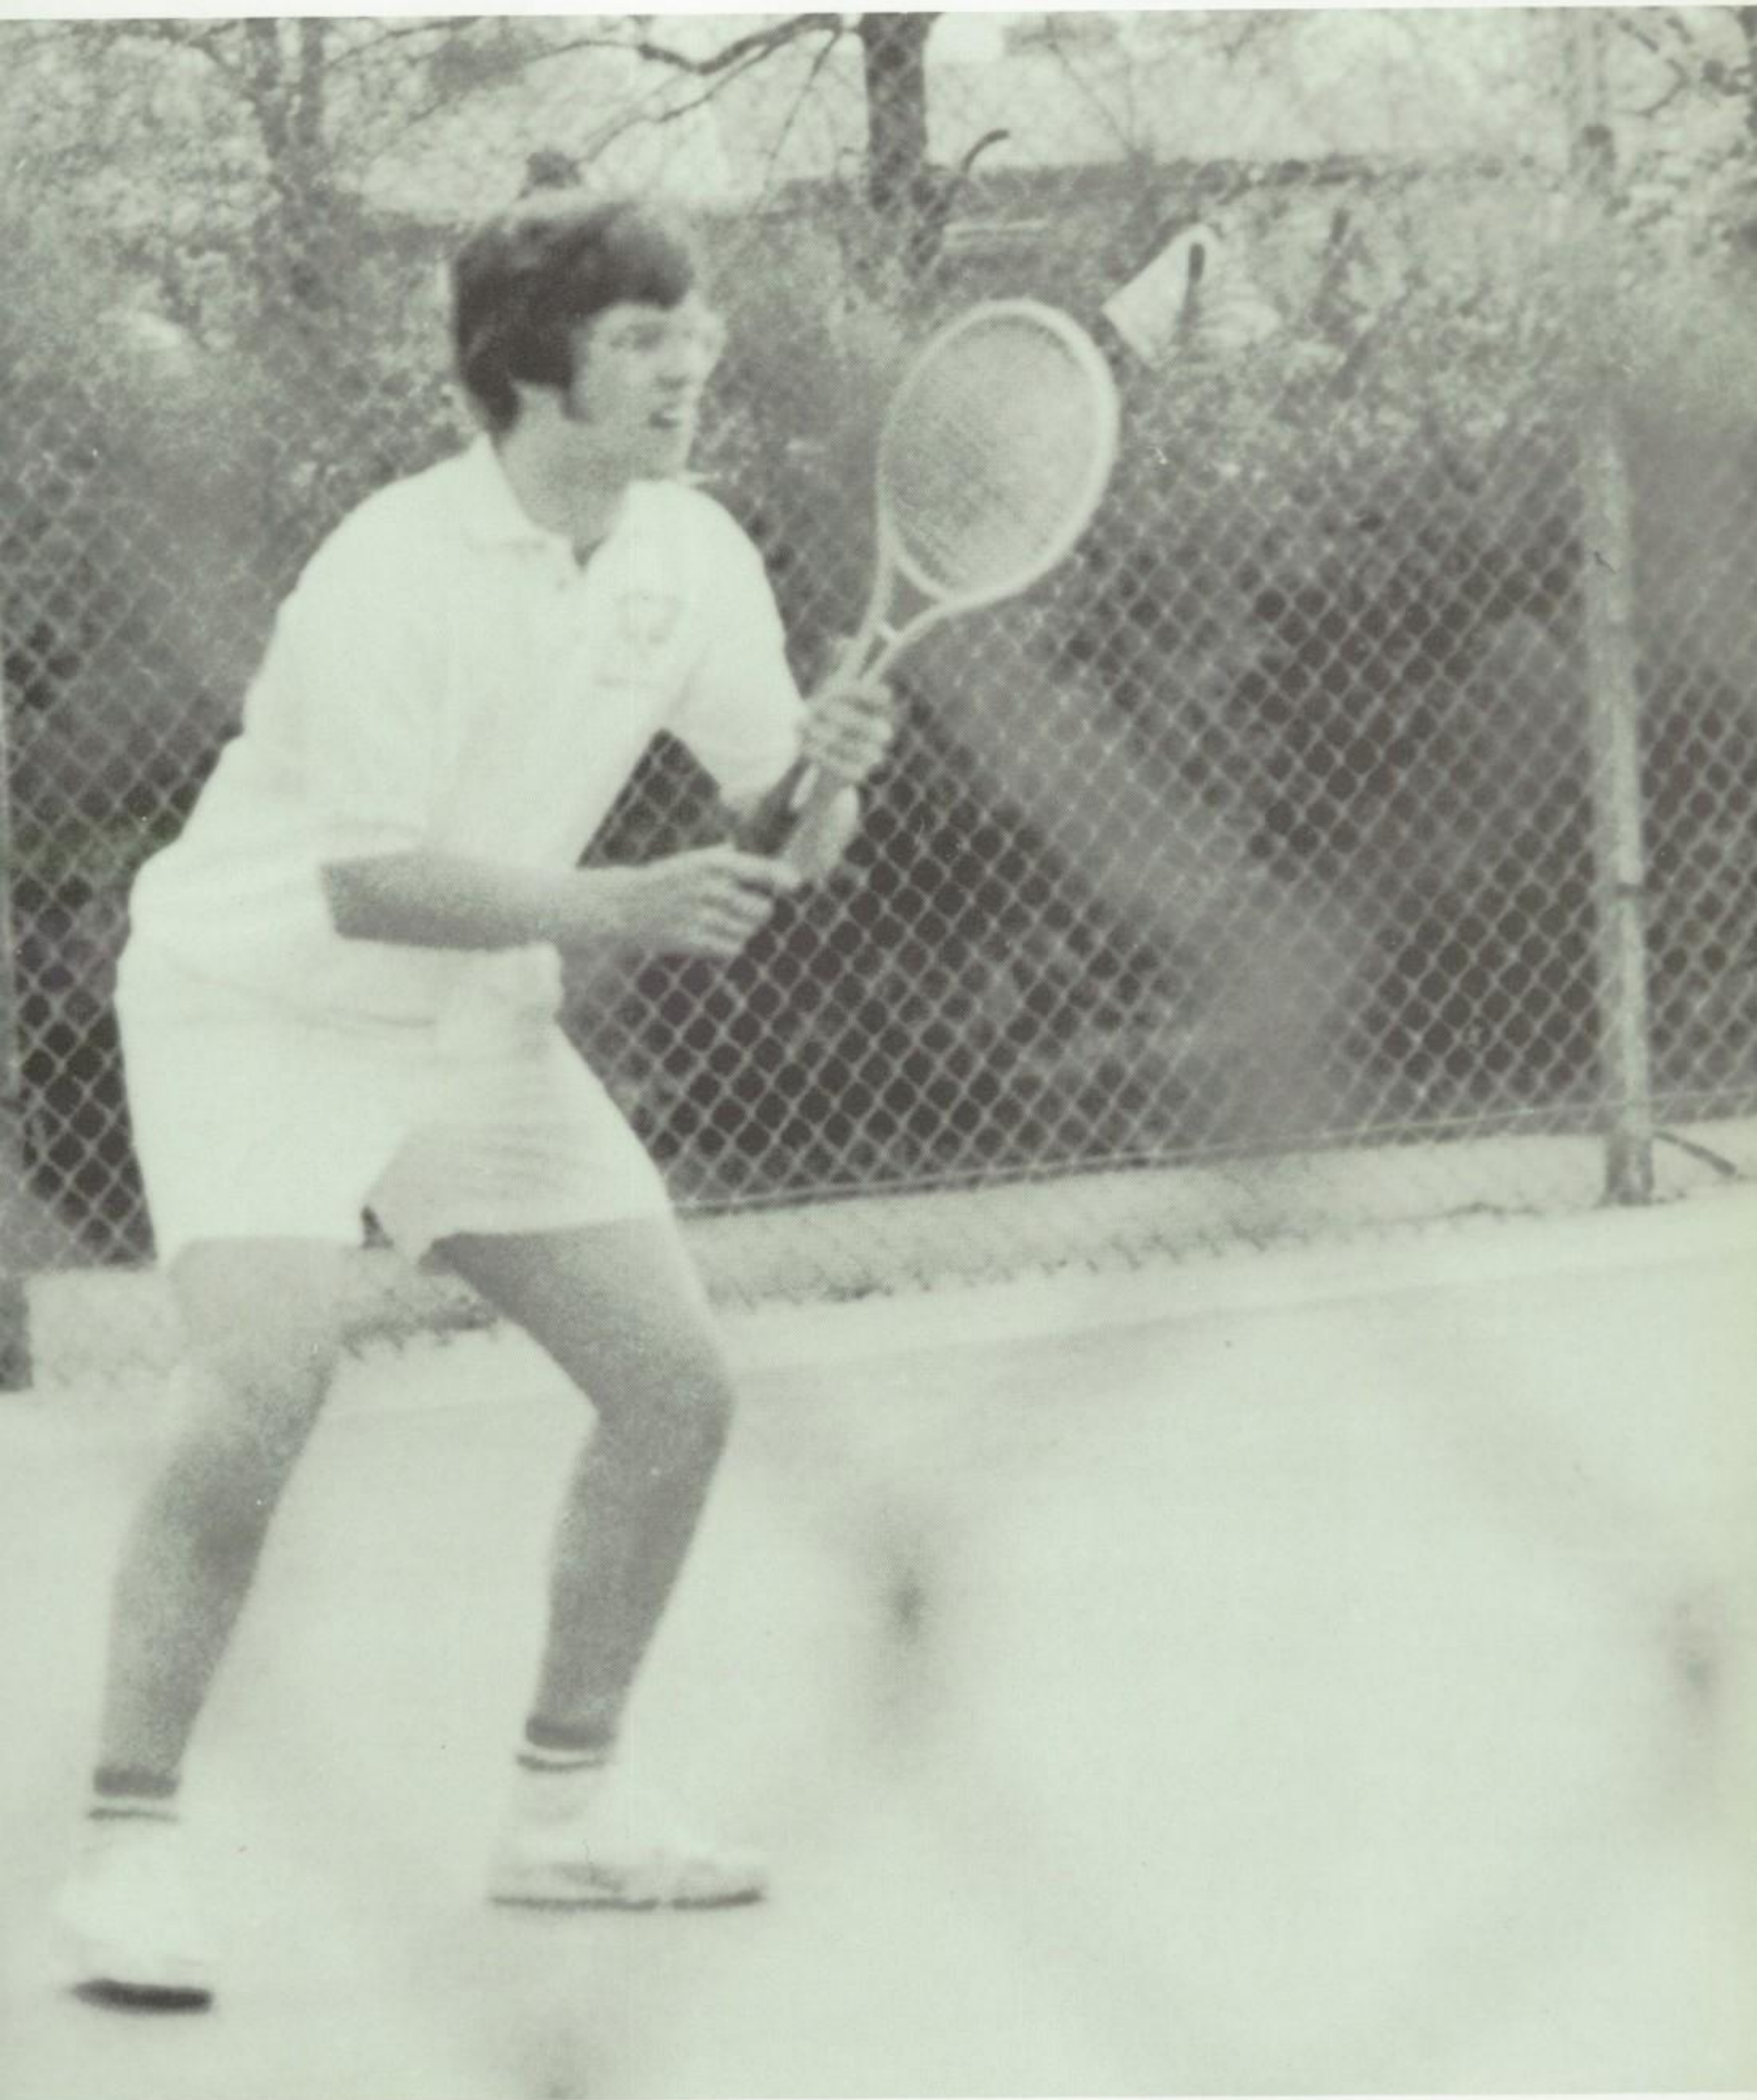

Steve Glass produced the longest match of the season by squeezing by his opponent, 17 to 15.

The 1972 golf team compiled an overall record of 19-4, placed second in the Federal League and 6th in the District under the coaching of Mr. Gary Wechter.

Tim Starrett was the number one golfer on the squad. He and Dave Catcott were chosen for the Federal League's All-Star team. Starrett was medalist in 17 matches and also was medalist in the sectional tournament.

The team's biggest match of the season was when they defeated Oakwood, Alliance, and Lehman on the same day in a quadrangular meet.

ORGANIZATIONS

Membership and Fun Increase

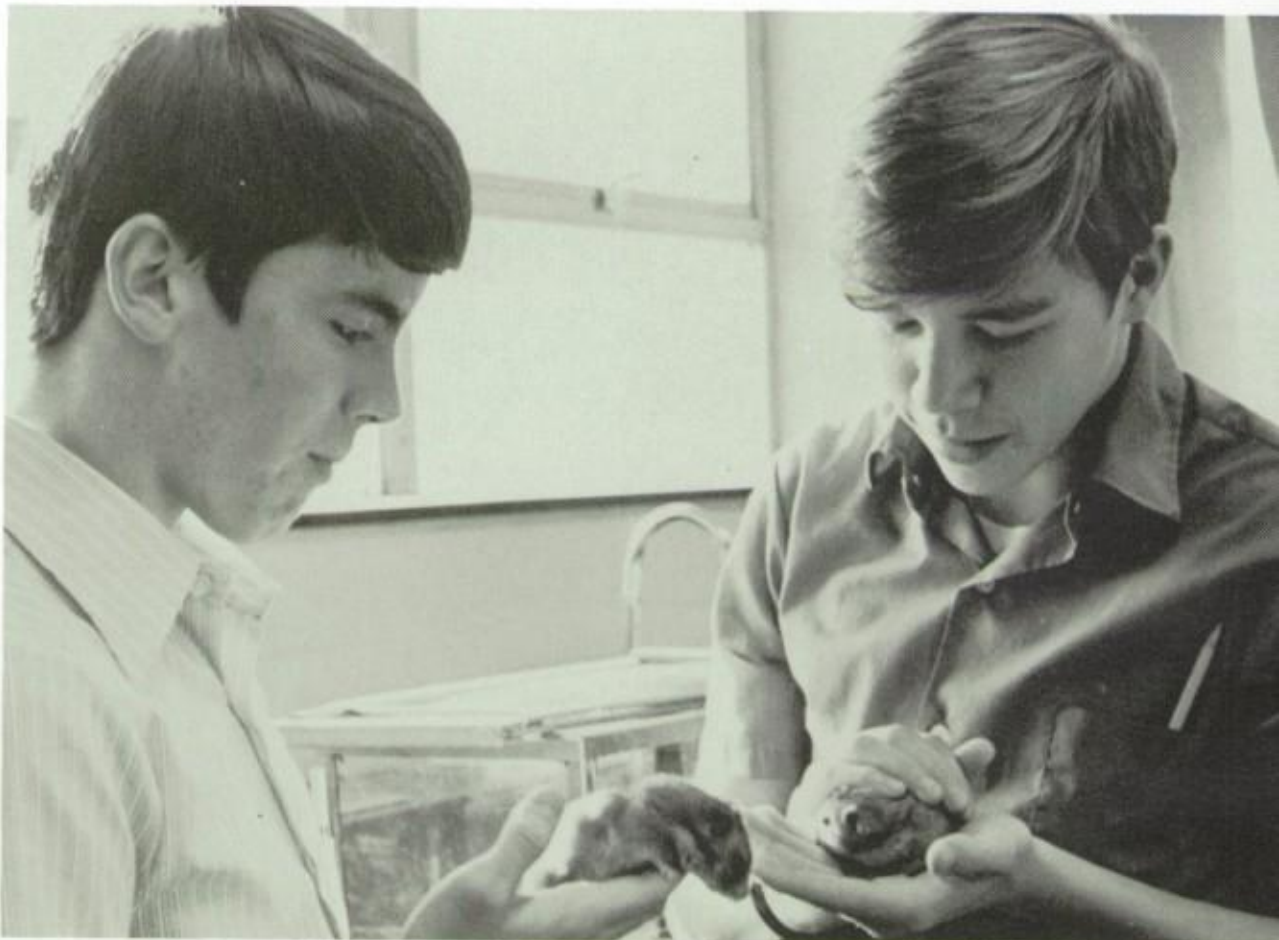

Because of the growing interest in foreign countries, the membership of the language clubs has increased greatly this year. The French Club had approximately thirty new members who rolled peanuts across the floor with their noses for their initiation.

Enthusiastic members of the Latin Club went trick-or-treating in their togas, while the Spanish Club defeated the German Club in a soccer game by the score of 3-2. The French and German Clubs combined to display their singing talents in Christmas carols of their respective languages. In June, the Spanish Club participated in a Spring Fiesta.

... For a Really Worthwhile Year

Science and Math Club combined this year under advisors Mr. Hobe and Mr. McHan. Kathy Parker, president; Dave Preston, vice-president; and Bob Draper, secretary-treasurer; served as officers. Activities included a mathematical fun night, tour of WJAN, a spring picnic and a spring science fair.

The Medical Arts Club toured area hospitals, sold Christmas candles, and held a banquet. Mrs. Hill, advisor, and Sue Hawk, president, led the club.

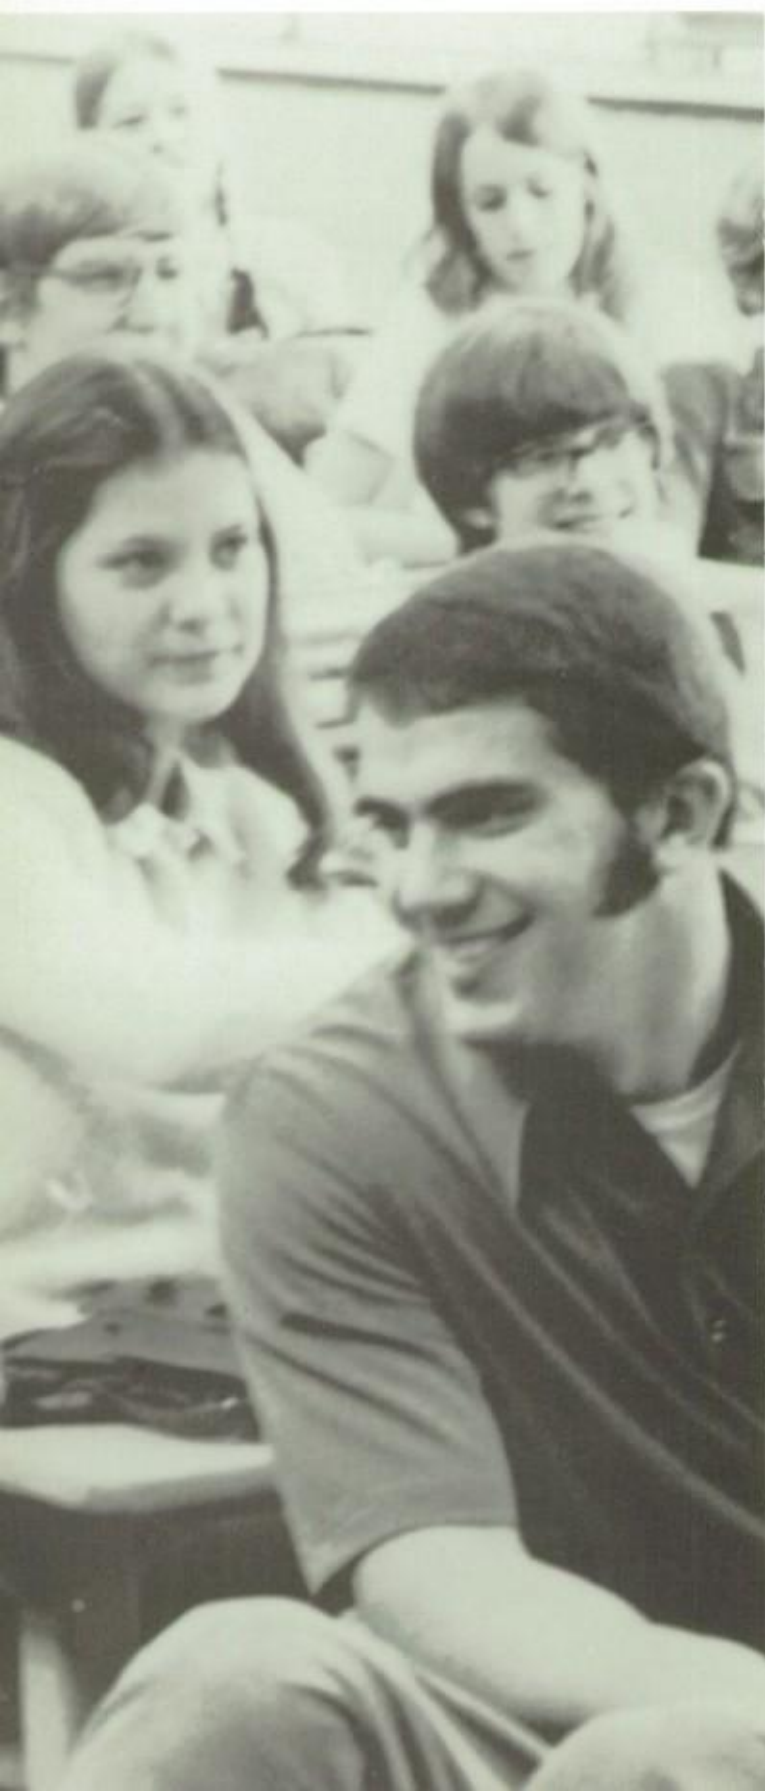

The Home Ec Club had a mother-daughter banquet, a Christmas exchange, and outside visitors spoke to the group on topics of interest.

Students Council Brings Reality to Ideas and Wishes of the Students

Student Council sponsored the Homecoming dance, the Paul Schoepner benefit, a canned goods drive, and several after-game dances. Committees were set up to discuss the dress code, an open lunch period, and omission of first and seventh period study halls. Assemblies planned by the council were a karate exhibition, Christmas plays put on by Council members, and folk singers, Sandy and Mark Hollis. Officers were Bob Ward, president; Sam Williams, vice-president; Jody Weber, secretary; and Fran Piatt, treasurer.

Booster and Chess Clubs End a Successful Year

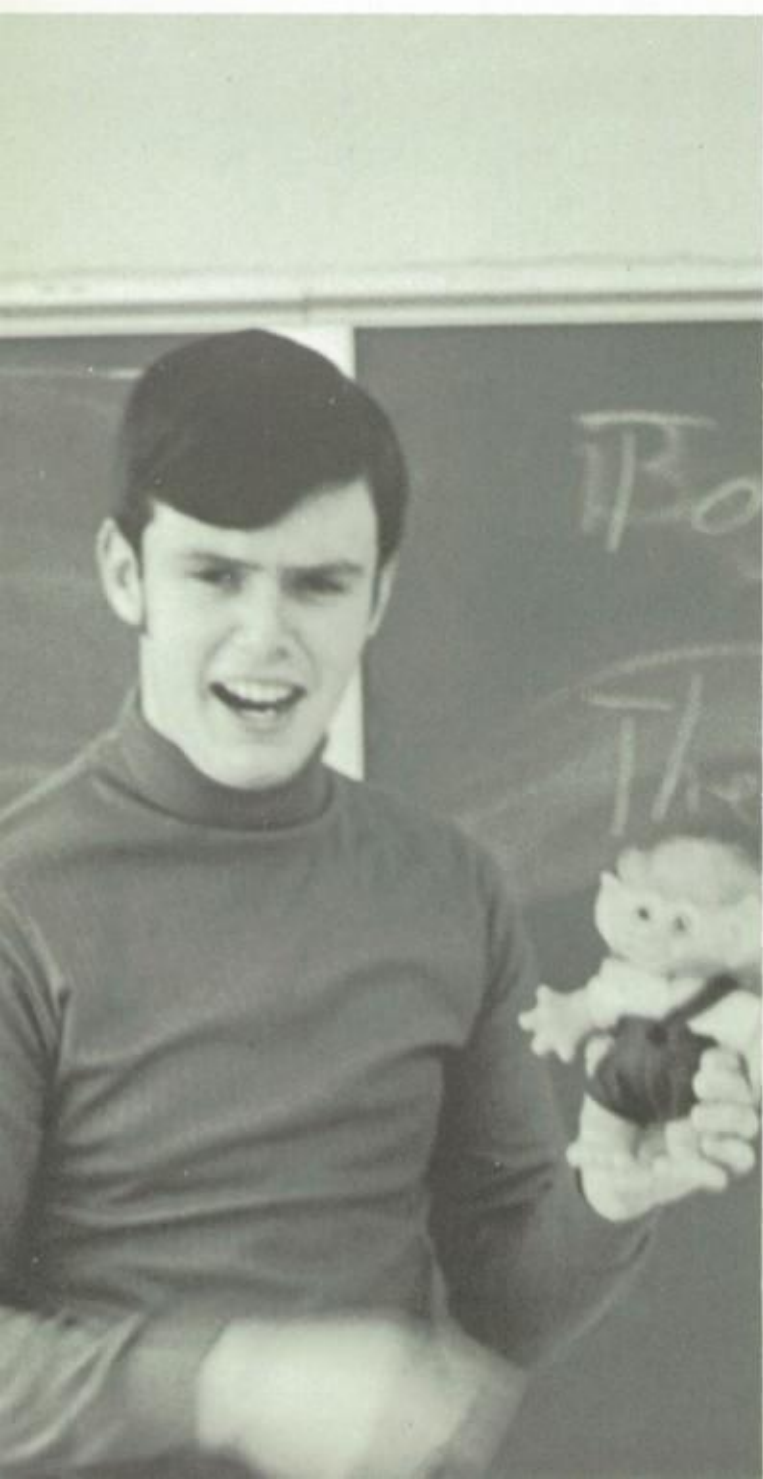

"Beat Louisville" ribbons and a ten layer cake were the Booster Club's contributions to Hoover's first football team to achieve a 10-0 season. A new banner was donated to the cheerleaders and a roster used at basketball games was presented to the school. Once again, the Booster Club sold mums for the Homecoming football game, and sponsored the Turnabout Dance. Roasting wieners and signing annuals were among the activities which the members enjoyed.

Two teams from Hoover's Chess Club competed in the Third Annual Great Lakes Chess Tournament in Cleveland on December 16 and 17. Taking ninth place in the Championship division, were teams of Paul Miller, Mike Morath, Mark Tapley, and Mark Wabschall. In a tournament in October Paul Miller beat all his challengers and became the new president of the Chess Club. Mark Tapely came in second and was named vice president. Assistant vice president was Mike Morath, and Mark Wabschall worked as treasurer. Jim Chievitz was secretary.

Student Talent Is Displayed

The National Forensic League members participated in team speaking tournaments at Lehman, Marlinton, Wooster, Minerva, and McKinley. President Scott Davis led the group. Mrs. McElwee, the new speech teacher, served as advisor.

The Thespian Club produced two plays this year. For another activity and to gain an appreciation of drama, club members attended the area plays Plaza Suite; Promises, Promises; and Sheep on the Runway; with Mrs. Marquardt and Tim Baker, President.

Students' Athletic Interests Shine

Fellowship of Christian Athletes' projects includes a car wash, selling '10-0' bumper stickers, T-shirts, WHLO-faculty basketball game, and devotional meetings. President Jeff Logan said, "Funds raised were used to send active members to summer camp."

The Girls' Athletic Association sponsored a hayride, father-daughter date night, roller skating party, and a swimming party for its members this year. Officers Sue Billey, Chris Pool, Barb Wilson, and Debbie Gourley planned activities.

Newspaper Staff Works Endlessly On Viking Views

Innovations this year on the Viking Views were captions for pictures, more pictures, and a guidance column written by Scott Myers entitled "The Counselor Is In." Leading the staff were co-editors Sharon Pala and Scott Hill. The three journalism classes contributed most of the articles for the paper. Other members of the staff include Tom Nimen, cartoonist; Laurie Smith, business and advertising manager; Debbie Staley, sports editor; and Steve Buesy and Chris Bien, photographers. Mr. Airhart, advisor, said, "The paper experienced a successful year, because of more interested students."

Hard Work and Skill Pay Off

For the first time since Mr. Walker has been the yearbook advisor, the job of editor was shared between two people, Jill Snively and Sue Waltenbaugh.

The work began in the summer of '72 and moved steadily to the spring of '73. During this time, the 1973 Viking crew experienced mixed emotions of panic before deadlines and relief on the cherished mailing dates. Their main goal was to paint an accurate picture of our school days and produce a yearbook with the theme, "This Year."

This Year's Band Performs Hits

After a long workout at Camp Wakonda, the marching band entertained half time crowds with numbers including "Shaft" and "Get It On." The majorettes brightened shows with a clown act, Charleston dance, and a fire baton routine. The group played in the Tuslaw Band Festival. The Concert Band performed at the Christmas Assembly and Concert and the winter Concert. Dance Band activities included the Annual Stage Band Festival.

Hoover Choirs Show Excellence

After Tiring Hours of Practice

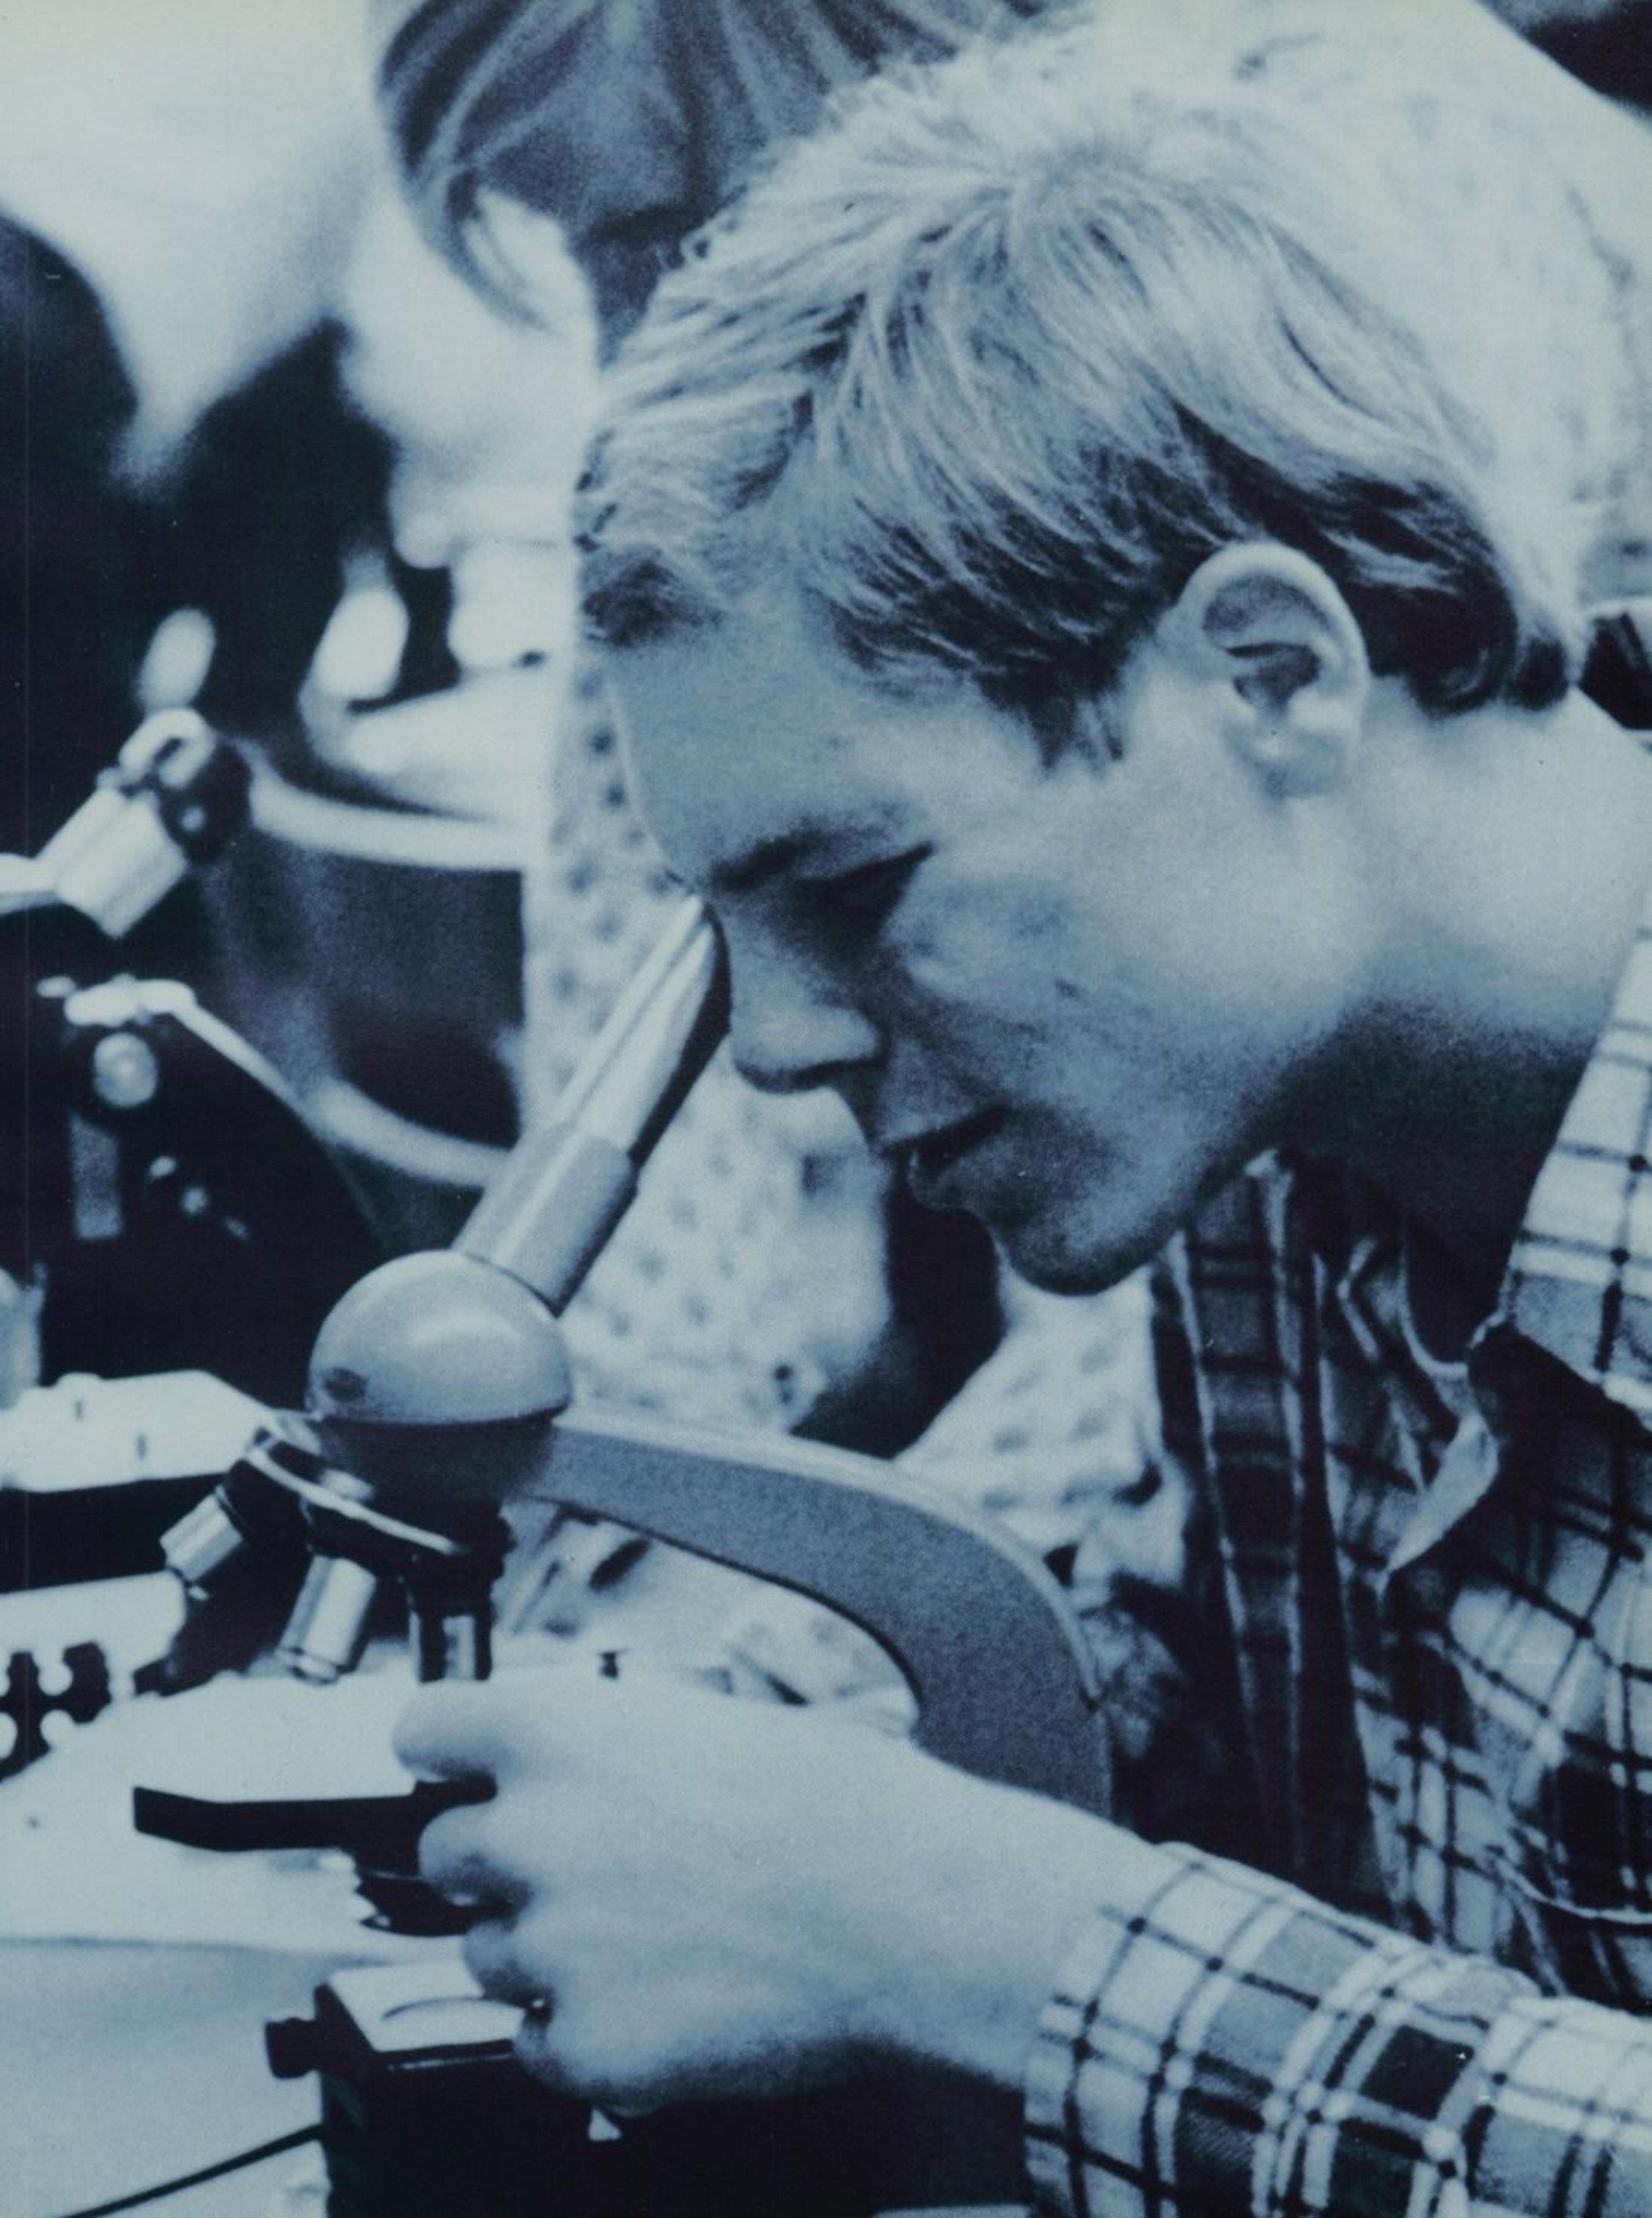

Under a new director, Mr. Howes, the A'Capella Choir put on an introductory concert and a spring show, "Annie Get Your Gun." The choir performed during the Thanksgiving and Christmas Assemblies. The Sophomore Mixed Choir and the Girls Glee Club sang at several concerts. The choirs and the band joined forces during the Christmas Concert to sing "Jesus: Joy of Man's Desiring" and the Hallelujah Chorus. The Choral Department combined to present the formal Spring Sing. The Hi-Lows sang many places away from school.

Politics Play Big Role in This Year's Discussion

Students' involvement in politics and elections spotlighted the Social Studies department this year. Activities in the various classes included Senior Day elections, visits to the polls, political notebooks, and the usual debates over several issues.

Students found Mr. Flad, new to the Social Studies department, to have unique ideas.

Students Search For Answers

Mr. Berrodin had an opportunity to teach Biology lecture classes this year since an overflow of sophomores necessitated that a third lecture class be added. Clams and starfish were two of the new dissection objects used to increase the students' knowledge of various animals' anatomies and their similarities to the humans.

A Beckman ED-1204 spectrophotometer, which detects wave lengths absorbed by different substances, a water pollution test kit, and other environmental studies equipment were added to the science department.

Linguists Unite

Guten Tag! Hola! Salutes! Bonjour! The past year has been a very fruitful one for the students of Hoover's foreign languages. Understanding of the native countries has been broadened by the addition of a slide projector for the use of all the classes.

Decision Making Aids in Vocation

The Home Ec. department taught the girls ideas for decision making. Engagement, marriage, and child care were studied by the seniors. The juniors explored furniture and home architecture. Sophomores learned procedures for sewing and cooking.

In printshop, metalshop, and woodshop, the boys learned to apply skills when working with their hands and tools.

Art Student is Challenged by New Techniques

Silk-screening, still-life, movies and linoleum cuts were the painted and constructed projects done by the Hoover High Art classes. Mr. Palmer and Mrs. Luke supplied their students with visual aids like film-strips, slides, and prints of various artists. These aids and group work helped them to fully understand the concepts of the arts and artists. A trip was taken in March to the Cleveland Art Institute by all the art students.

Visitors' Advice Offers Success

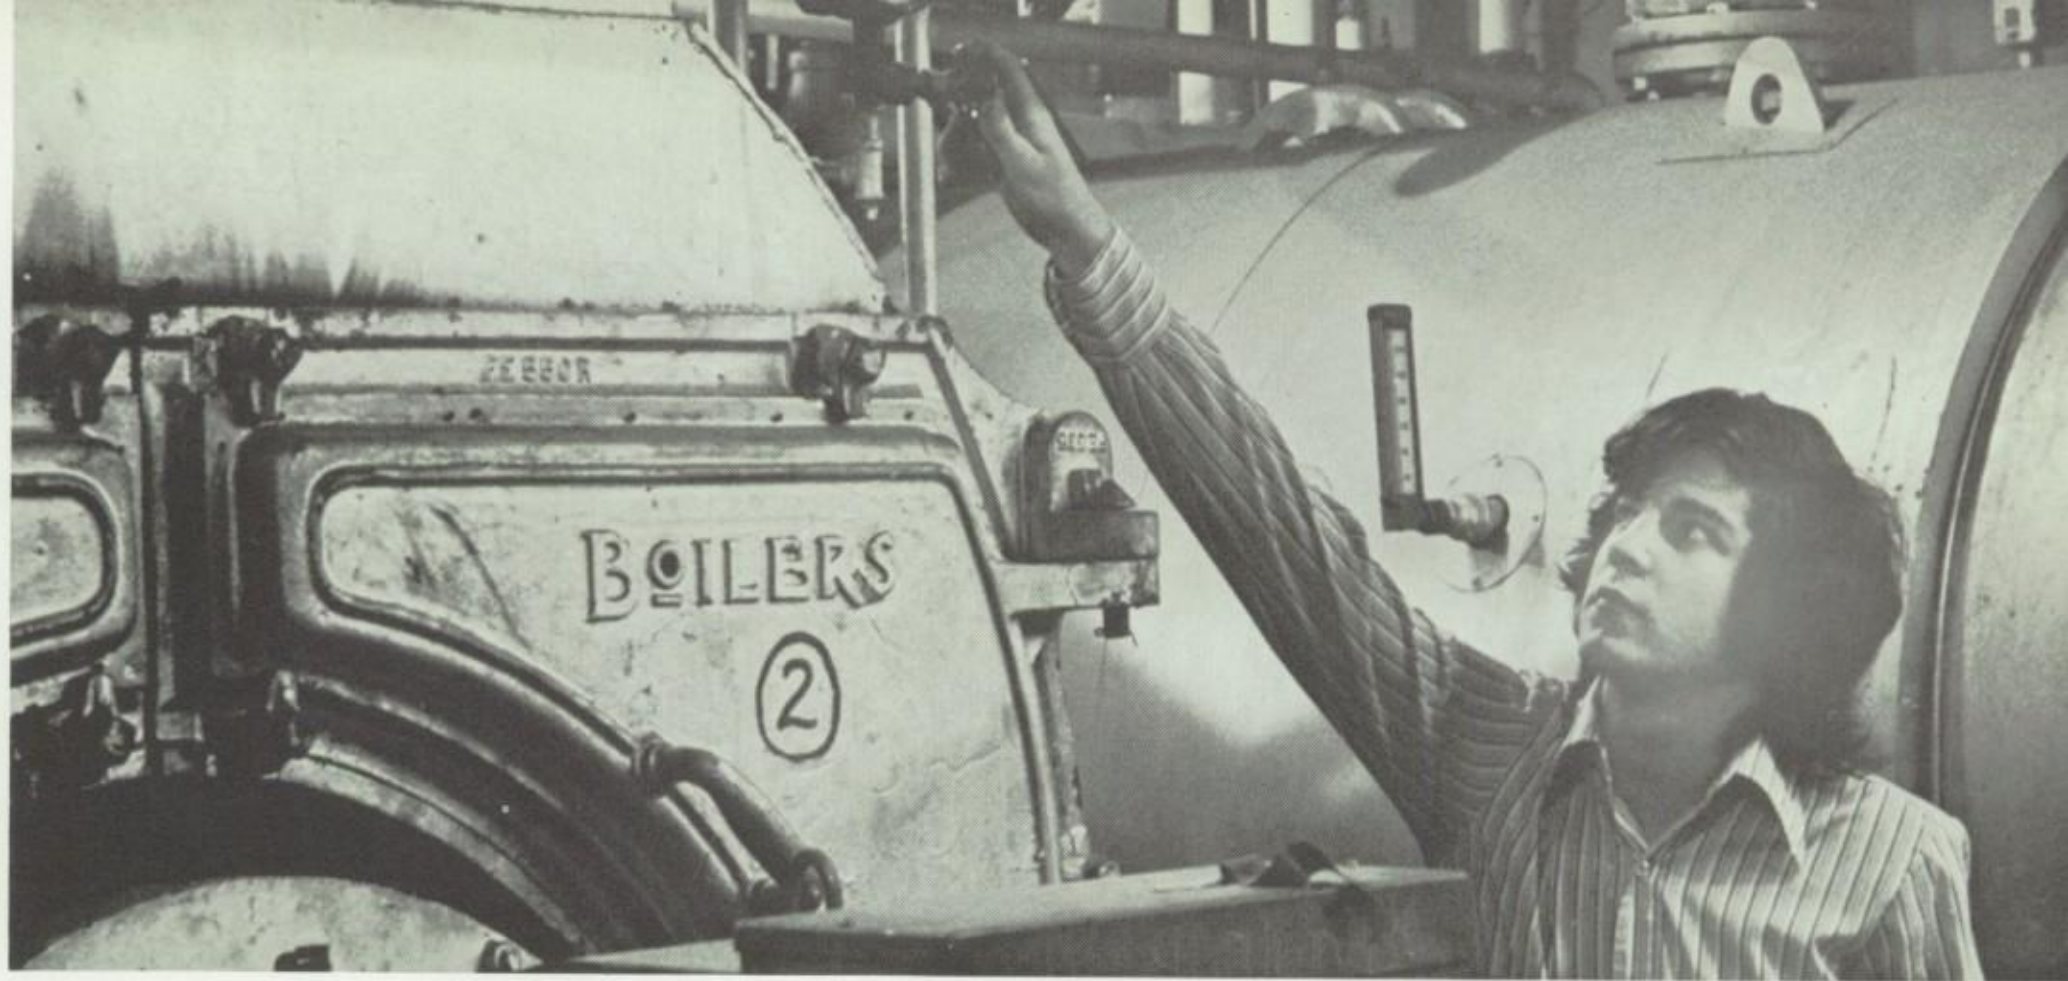

The Secretarial and Clerical courses were apart of the vocational program at Hoover. The girls were taught shorthand, bookkeeping, and Business English. Mrs. Herrington said, "This program helped the girls have more responsibility, self-discipline, and ability to get along with each other." The classes had speakers come to discuss their businesses and visited the Timken Company to observe their office procedures.

"On the job training" was the philosophy for DCT and OWE. The boys enrolled for the program because they did not wish to enter college, but wanted to learn a skill before graduation.

A side horse for vaulting and bowling equipment were new additions to the physical education department. The boys also received a new locker room. Miss Lowe stressed "carry over" sports this year. She feels that the girls should have some skill which can be used after they leave. Tennis and self-defense were two of the sports of this type which were used.

Water polo was intensified in the curriculum of this year's swimming classes. Enrollment increased to the point that Mr. Morrison found it necessary to reduce swimming to a semester course, eliminating the water volleyball of the previous years.

New Counselor Helps Students

Before Mrs. Smith came to Hoover this year she was a volunteer counselor for the Summit County Juvenile Court. Judges assign first time offenders to volunteers like Mrs. Smith for ninety days and the offense does not go on the youth's permanent records. During the ninety days the counselor meets with the juveniles three to five days a week.

Mrs. Smith often took the youths she worked with on trips, such as to Belden Village Mall, rather than just sitting and talking with them. Since most of the youths came from Akron's inner-city, these trips were new experiences for them. Now that Mrs. Smith has joined the Hoover staff she devotes her time to working with members of the sophomore class as their guidance counselor.

Since 1968 Mr. Wirz and several of his friends have been modestly involved in stock car racing. Unfortunately for Hoover's representative in the field of racing, Mr. Wirz's cars never hold together long enough to win. Often times after crossing the finish line his car explodes. Mr. Wirz says, "My cars usually end up on the back of a tow truck." His main interests lie in racing on an oval track rather than cross country.

In addition to his many mechanical problems, he is also plagued by a lack of time and money that he explains as being, "essential to win" Despite his many failures, Mr. Wirz still frequents stock car races whenever he is able.

Various Jobs Add Excitement

Here at Hoover we have several painters other than those found in the art classes. These painters are the teachers who work on Mr. Davidson's paint crew: Messrs. Clark, Dobson, Kieffer, and Marchand. Since 1946 Mr. Davidson has managed a paint crew that over the years has included many Hoover teachers.

Last summer these talented men painted everything from private homes to the Greentown Moose Hall. Mr. Davidson claims that after the crew put their forty foot ladder with a six foot extension on a pick-up truck in order to reach the top of the Moose Hall, the crew was ready to demand flight pay. So remember if you ever need a Moose Hall painted, Mr. Davidson's paint crew has plenty of experience.

Music is Hobby

Here at Hoover we have several multitalented teachers. Among these is Miss Haden. She sings, plays guitar, and writes. Last summer she wrote a short story about the contrasts in life styles that developed between a married woman and an unmarried career woman. They knew each other in their younger days and met again after several years of separation.

During the school year Miss Haden did the rewrite to her story. She hopes to have the story published and said, "I have aspirations of being a writer, and when I grow up I want to be rich and famous."

Fish Won't Bite

Last summer Mr. Kieffer and his family journeyed to Rice Lake, Canada, for a relaxing week of fishing. Although he caught quite a few fish while there, the really big ones managed to elude Mr. Kieffer. He commented on his vacation by saying, "Except for falling in the lake, getting stranded with a stalled motor, and catching only three walleyes, everything was great."

After working awhile with Mr. Davidson's paint crew, Mr. Kieffer took his family to Bethany Beach in Delaware. He tried his hand at surf fishing, but he had no better success than he had had when fishing in Canada.

Story of Ecology Helps to Solve Today's Problems

Last summer Mr. Berrodin attended a seven week training course in ecology at Theil College, sponsored by the National Science Foundation. He was one of thirty people chosen from three hundred to attend the 1972 Summer Ecology Institute. While there, Mr. Berrodin learned about the harms of pollution and the equipment and skills available to help man fight back.

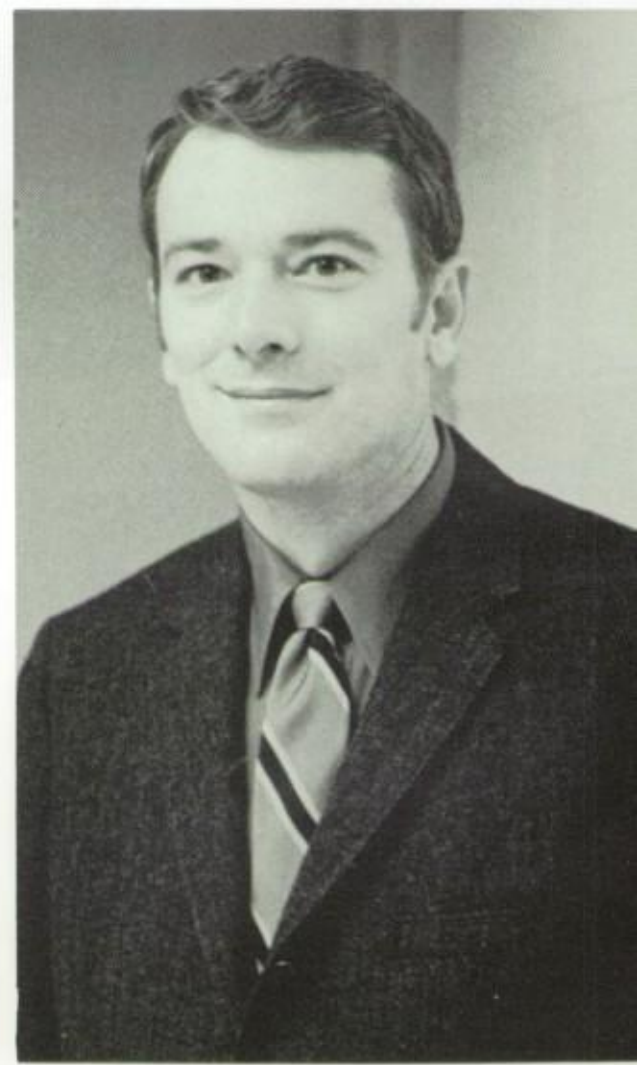

He feels that the most important thing he learned was that pollution is a problem that must be solved now, and not put aside for the future. Mr. Berrodin hopes that he has been able to give his students a better understanding of the problems of pollution because of his taking the course.

Case Work is Very Rewarding

Mr. Howes has been a case worker for Summit County Welfare Agency for the past eight summers. He is the agency's only adult specialist, working with about one hundred families. The agency provides food, shelter, and clothing for the underprivileged. Mr. Howes enjoys working with others as demonstrated by his devotion to the choirs from Hoover.

Fly Into Music

Besides conducting the band, Mr. McCleaster also conducts flying lessons at Akron-Canton Airport. Mr. McCleaster started flying in 1959 and now holds a commercial license with a flight instructor's rating. Over the years he has given several students from Hoover flight instructions. Mr. McCleaster owns a Mooney Super 21, that cruises at 175 miles per hour.

Our Faculty Worked Hard Before Coming to Hoover

Alfred to Yale and New England to California illustrate the diversity of Hoover teacher preparation locales. While everyone has done some sort of post-graduate study, 55% of the staff has masters degrees. In addition to summer and night study, many teachers have traveled and studied abroad. Mr. Spaulding studied in France; Mrs. Ream in Germany; and most recently, Miss Gasper in Mexico. Over Christmas, Mrs. Berkebile visited Russia and Mr. Davidson, Panama.

CLASSES

Senior Class Selects Dependable Leaders to Begin Their Last Year

The mark one class of 1973 left at North Canton Hoover High will last a lifetime. Many of the Seniors have been recognized through-out the state and nation. Sue Waltenbaugh is well-known for her musical abilities; Jody Mathie for her 4-H activities, and Dave Smith received the most valuable player award at a national basketball camp. Senior Suzie Smith had enough credits to attend Walsh College this year.

But for many Seniors it took until December for them to really understand that they were in their final school year. One girl said, "Realizing it hit me like a bolt of lightning." One boy said, "I'm glad I'm a senior but I will truly miss those assemblies." Another girl commented, "I can't believe it. After 11 years I'm finally a Senior." The class of 1973 finally made it leaving their footprints in the halls of Hoover High.

Class of '74 Plans Jr.-Sr. Prom And Other Class Functions This School Year

1973 was definitely an exciting year for the junior class. This year's junior class treasurer, Rick Singer, felt the students began to unite to make the desired changes in various school policies. Debates were held on the idea of free study halls and lunch periods. This year was also important to many individuals in the class. Jeff Logan broke county scoring records. Dean Taylor went to Germany with nine other students to learn what Red Cross is doing there. Stephanie Skemp was chosen to tour Europe this coming summer with "People to People." Juniors also worked many hours on the prom, which was based on the book, Hobbit. The chairman was Barb Surbey.

Starting out their first year at Hoover High School were class officers Doug Myers, president; Paul Crouser, vice-president; Peggy Rowan, secretary; and Sherry Hirt, treasurer. No historian was elected.

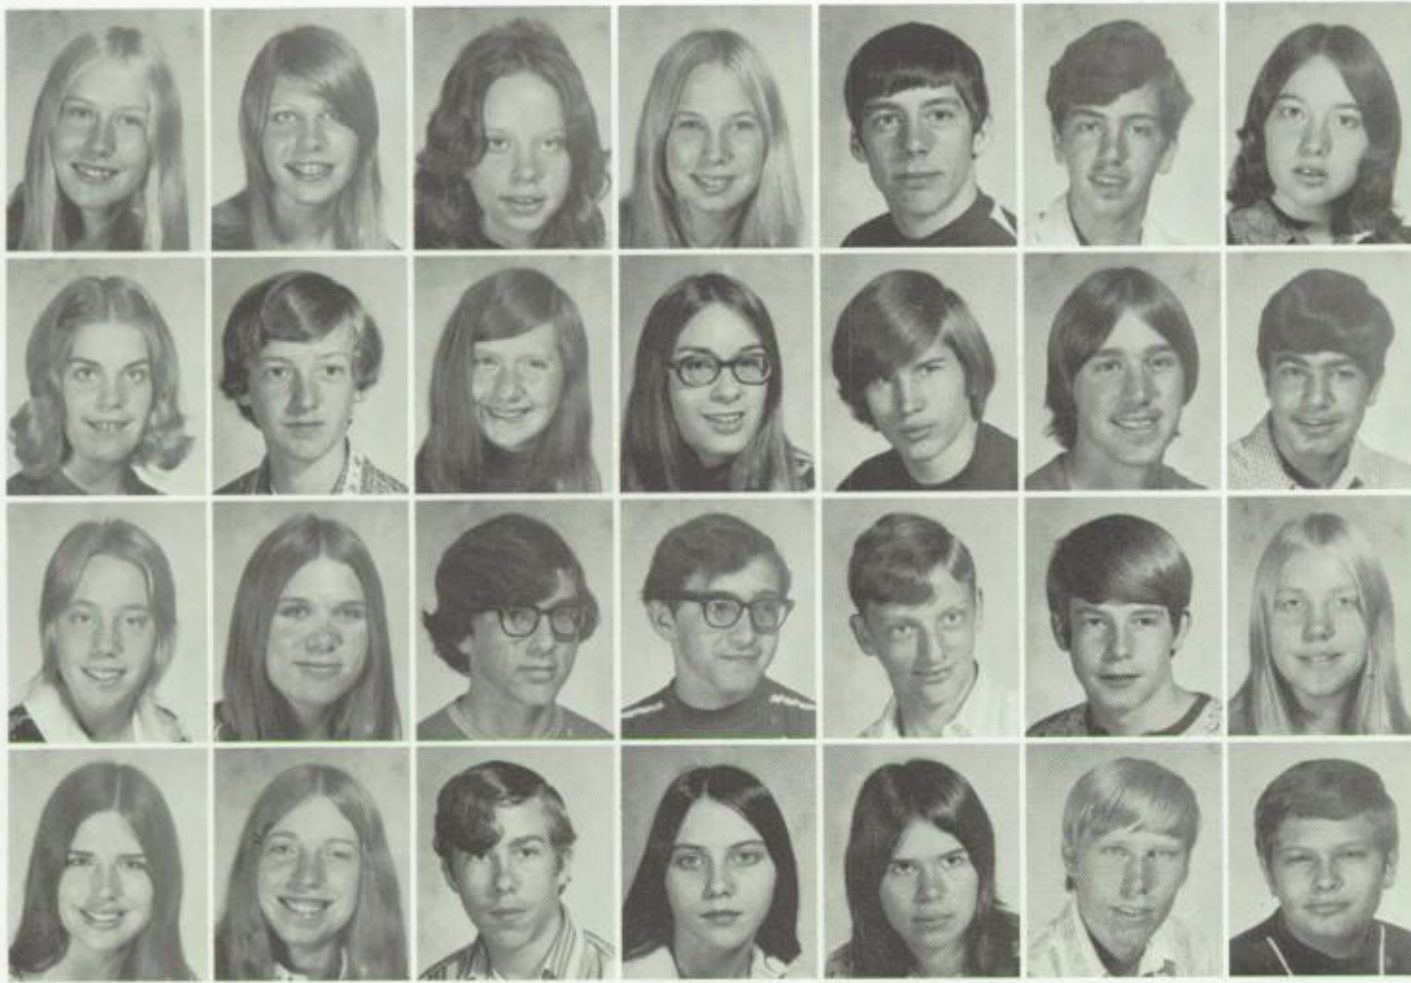

Sophomores Enter Hoover High As the Largest Class This Year

After spending another year at the Junior High, 465 new faces graced Hoover High's hallowed halls. Being the youngest was fun according to Sharon Hirt, class secretary. She also said studies were much harder than at the Junior High with a greater amount of homework.

Enthusiasm was the sophomores' most outstanding contribution this year. Sophomore spirit signs and orange and black sophomore chick shirts livened up many a pep rally.

Individuals from the class stood out also. Debbie Seitz and Terri Mundorff were the two sophomores in the play "Harvey." Bill Schreckengos, who played on the Varsity football team, participated in half of the famous Louisville game, and Karen Chasin was chosen as an exchange student. Sophomores also had a bigger part in serving the couples at the Homecoming dance.

As We Met
We Began
Our GOOD-BYE

Now Those MEMORIES are Lost in Paths of Time

We feel our first note of thanks should most strongly be extended to our advisor, Mr. Walker, and for all the help he has given us, especially his patience during our early days as co-editors.

Special thanks to Sally Wern who spent long hours in designing and preparing the cover for this year's annual. Steve Troup picked up where his sister, Sandy, left off and continued to be our picture carrier between the school and TROUP AND PLUTO STUDIOS.

Sincere appreciation is felt toward the people of our community and the Hoover faculty for the understanding and support given to the staff during the making of this year's book.

We would like to thank those staff members who gave willingly of their time. The two of us are grateful for having the opportunity to learn from one another while working together.

Co-editors: Jill Snively
